Manildra

Dick Honan - Chairman

Luke Giribon – Consultant

The Manildra Group, which began in 1952 with the purchase of a single flour mill in the town of Manildra, NSW. It remains privately owned, but now it is Australia's largest processor of wheat - more than 1.5 million tonnes per year - exporting to over 30 countries. At different locations throughout NSW i.e. Manildra, Nowra, Gunnedah, Narrandera and Harwood Island, and internationally, the group produces flour, semolina, gluten, starch and glucose. The Manildra Group has an ethanol distillery operating at its integrated starch facility in Nowra, and also operates a wheat starch/gluten facility in Hamburg, Iowa.

The Group is in partnership with the NSW Sugar Co-operative, which is the 2nd largest sugar refiner in Australia and processes the total NSW sugar crop. The Group is also in partnership with MSM Milling, which are the 2nd largest crusher and refiner of vegetable oil in Australia.

Origin Energy

Heidi Cooper - Government Relations Manager

Origin is the leading Australian integrated energy company operating across the energy supply chain. In Queensland, Origin is jointly developing Australia's largest CSG to LNG project, through Australia Pacific LNG. Origin has a strong focus on ensuring the sustainability of its operations and has significant investments in renewable energy technologies.
