Father was cooking breakfast behind the vehicle. Father put an item in the fridge in the rear seat as his son stood and attempted to walk to father around the vehicle. Man heard his son scream and saw his son on the ground. He had fallen over at first bite.Dingo 36white20m was biting his legs and thigh. The larger dingo (white square tagged male) approached and nipped him on the right buttock.The father approached around the car at speed yelling and the dingoes fronted him. He reached for the shovel and he observed the dingoes demenour changed. He swung the shovel to move them on. It took numerous swings before they left. Man had no reception and drove ~40mins to Orchid Beach township where he recalled seeing a doctors sign. Residents directed him to the local first aid responder.Interaction behaviours are as described in the Glossary of terms. |
