¹ If yes is ticked, you must indicate if the event occurred to you individually or to a company or business in which you currently hold, or have held, a position of management or control. You must also provide complete details (including the state/territory/country in which the event occurred, the relevant legislation, location of offence or incident, date of offence or incident, amount of fine, facts and circumstances surrounding the offence or incident, details of relevant persons involved including name and positions, name of court, court reference number etc.) in an attachment. You may also attach any submission you want the chief executive to consider in assessing this information, which will be used in deciding whether you are a suitable operator. A 'relevant person' is either the applicant or any person with whom the applicant is a partner or, if a corporation, any of the corporation's executive officers.

Additionally if you answer yes to any question, the chief executive responsible for the Environmental Protection Act 1994 may disclose your information to an administering authority of another state under a corresponding law or to the commissioner of the police service to obtain a suitability report. The commissioner of the police service may disclose your information to officials administering police services in other Australian jurisdictions for information relevant to the suitability report.

² Partner means—

- (a) an individual who has involvement with another entity's business dealings, or
- (b) a person who plays a role in managing or controlling a business along with another person.

³ Including any other companies of which the executive officers are, or have been, an executive officer.

⁴ Environmental offence means—

- (a) an offence against any of the following provisions—section 260, section 291(3), chapter 7, part 2, section 357(5), section 361, chapter 8 of the Environmental Protection Act 1994; or
- (b) an offence against a corresponding law, if the act or omission that constitutes the offence would, if it happens in Queensland, be an offence against a provision mentioned in paragraph (a).

⁵ Corresponding law means under a law of the Commonwealth or another State that provides for the same or similar matters as the Environmental Protection Act 1994.
